THE HISTORY OF 1886 CAFE & BAKERY

From The Driskill’s opening day back in December 1886, the space that is now 1886 Cafe & Bakery has lived many lives. From being a salon and gambling hall to the Ladies Heritage Society Luncheon Room, the space has provide guests and local Austinite’s a place to relax and enjoy a traditional Texas meal.

During the 1950s, Helen Corbitt (the Julia Child of Texas) was the head of The Driskill’s dining rooms and catering services. We honor her legacy by continuing to feature two of her most beloved recipes, her Cheese Soup and the famous 1886 Chocolate Cake.
